

British Columbia Loan Forgiveness Program

Instructions and Application

BRITISH COLUMBIA

StudentAidBC

Instructions and Information

The Canada Student Loans Act and regulations and/or the Canada Student Financial Assistance Act set the legal rights and obligations of a student and should be referred to in the case of uncertainty or dispute.

1. Read these instructions and conditions carefully.
2. Complete the application.
3. Send an original, current (within one month) letter confirming employment (full-time, part-time, and/or casual) at a publicly funded facility in a designated vacancy or an underserved community in British Columbia along with your completed application. Electronic versions of employment letters will not be accepted. If you have a practitioner number, you must submit a letter from your health authority confirming your privilege to serve in the community. Those professionals under contract for the Province must ensure their employment letter also includes the contract number and ministry involved. Midwives must also submit a letter from the Association of Midwives confirming their registration.
4. Attach an official sealed transcript confirming graduation requirements have been fulfilled.
5. Read, sign, and date Section 4 of the application and return the completed application to:

Student Services Branch
StudentAid BC
Ministry of Advanced Education
PO Box 9173 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V9W 9H7

7. Keep a copy of this application for your records.

Conditions of Loan Forgiveness

1. You must have started your final year of study on or after Aug. 1, 2000 (for nurses, nurse practitioners, physicians, midwives and pharmacists), have graduated on or after Dec. 1, 2004 (for speech language pathologists, occupational therapists, physiotherapist, and audiologists) and completed your final year on or after April 1, 2007 (for school psychologists, teachers of the deaf/hard of hearing teachers of the visually impaired, and technology education teachers).
2. You must not be in full-time studies.
3. Both your Canada and British Columbia student loans must be in good standing.
4. You must have graduated from an accredited post-secondary educational facility.
5. The Province will forgive your outstanding B.C. portion of your Canada-B.C. integrated student loan debt at a rate of 33 1/3 per cent per year for each year you practise at a publicly funded facility in an underserved community or fill a designated vacancy at a publicly funded facility in British Columbia.
6. For each year you are registered in the program and employed in an underserved community or fill a designated vacancy in a publicly funded facility in British Columbia, the Province will pay the interest on your B.C. portion of your Canada-B.C. integrated student loan debt. If you do not complete a full year of practice, the interest that has accrued on your student loan debt will be capitalized into principal, and you will be responsible for payment.
7. At the end of each year of practice, you must submit a letter from your employer, health authority or contractor confirming that you have completed a full year of employment in a publicly funded facility in an underserved community or a designated vacancy in B.C.
8. To maintain your registration in the program, you must submit a loan forgiveness application form at the beginning of each year, including the 3rd year you are employed in a publicly funded facility in an underserved community or fill a designated vacancy in British Columbia.
9. Loan forgiveness will be paid on your B.C. portion of your Canada-B.C. integrated student loan principal amount outstanding at the date your complete application is received by StudentAidBC. Interest on your B.C. portion of your Canada-B.C. integrated student loan is paid from your consolidation date or the first day of the month following the date your complete application was received at StudentAid BC, whichever is later.
